

JOB OPPORTUNITY:

General Counsel

This is an Exempt (at-will) appointment, full time, with a salary range of: $15,209 - $17,393 per month.

Under direction of the President of the California Public Utilities Commission (CPUC), the General Counsel fulfills the role of principal legal advisor to the CPUC, who shall represent and appear for the people of the State of California and the CPUC in all actions and proceedings involving any question under the Public Utilities Code or under any order or act of the CPUC.

The General Counsel manages complex and sensitive litigation and performs accordingly with the Rule of Professional conduct 3-600 (Organization as Client) and California Government Code section 19572 (in its entirety).

The General Counsel provides material assistance on a variety of matters, including, but not limited to, budget preparation, reviewing proposed legislation, representing the Legal Division by attendance on various management committees within the CPUC, policy and legal strategy development, determining staffing needs, overseeing and/or serving on interview panels, developing training, and overseeing complex programs which require the guidance of an experienced senior practitioner.

California Public Utilities Commission

The State of California is an equal opportunity employer to all, regardless of age, ancestry, color, disability (mental and physical), exercising the right to family care and medical leave, gender, gender expression, gender identity, genetic information, marital status, medical condition, military or veteran status, national origin, political affiliation, race, religious creed, sex (includes pregnancy, childbirth, breastfeeding, and related medical conditions), and sexual orientation.

It is an objective of the State of California to achieve a drug-free workplace. Any applicant for state employment will be expected to behave in accordance with this objective because the use of illegal drugs is inconsistent with the law of the State, the rules governing Civil Service, and the special trust placed in public servants.
